NECK AND NECKLINE CREAM

All skin type

Ref.: 0200 – Bottle 40ml

PROPERTIES:

- Cream with 98.5% of organic ingredients
- Developed specifically for the needs of the neck and neckline
- Smooths and plumps wrinkles and fine lines
- Prevents the signs of age

Why should you use a specific cream for the neck?

The skin of the neck is twice thin than those of the face, that's why she is close of the eye contour. She is very stressed when we turn or lower the head, but she is also submitted to external aggressions such as temperature change. However she is often neglected and reveals the signs of age. She tends to dry more easily than the skin of the face due to the low presence of sebaceous and sweat glands.

Moreover, a new wrinkle, nicknamed the « Text Neck wrinkle », is making its appearance in our ultra-connected society. This necklace wrinkle digs by having the neck leaning on smartphones and is sometimes accompanied by early appearance of a double chin.

The Centella Asiatica Stem cells: exceptional biotechnological anti-aging actif principle

The stem cells are present in our epidermis, they are the ones that reproduce by cellular division, and allow the skin to renew herself. The number of epidermal stem cells decrease with age and their efficiency weakens.

Extracted by biotechnology, the Centella Asiatica stem cells help to preserve and boost the natural functions of the stem cells of the skin. Rich in antioxidants, they fight against the formation of free radicals. They improve also the hydration and elasticity of the skin by stabilizing the hyaluronic acid content. Then, acting in synergy with others biological actives, they protect the epidermis optimally against external aggressions.

The Sodium Hyaluronate with different molecular weight

To avoid pleated neckline, it must moisturize in depth with hyaluronic acids with different molecular weight. The one with high molecular weight has a lifting effect nearly instantaneous but disappears after fifteen minutes. That's why we associate him with hyaluronic acid with low molecular weight that goes down deeply, smooths and plumps durably the neck and the upper chest.

The Organic and Fair Sesame Oil, virgin of first cold pressure and fair, is rich in Omega 6. She regenerates and softens the skin by protecting it. Rich in antioxidant E Vitamin, she prevents the signs of age.

The Organic and Fair Hazelnut Oil penetrates very quickly, that allows to insure a non-oily touch to this cream.

The Organic Centella Asiatica Extract allows to favor the collagen synthesis and to regenerate deeply the epidermis of mature skins altered by time.

DIRECTION FOR USE:

Apply this care on the neck and neckline, in downward movements, beginning to the neck to go to the chest. This smoothing of the skin muscle of the neck goes in the direction of the fibers of this muscle. This is important not to upset the muscle fibers. By using this product every evenings, the skin regenerates herself and the wrinkles and fine lines between the breasts will fade.
