Vitamins - The Key to Radiant and Vital Skin

Vitamin Power for Healthier Skin

Environmental factors such as UV radiation, exposure to blue light and air pollution, as well as lifestyle choices such as smoking, lead to an increase in free radicals, which cause oxidative stress in the skin.

To combat this damage, vitamin-rich skin care is essential. Vitamins C, E and A are particularly effective against free radicals. Vitamin C promotes collagen production and regenerates the skin, while Vitamin E moisturizes and protects the skin. Vitamin A improves skin structure and stimulates cell renewal. Regular use of a vitamin-rich skincare regimen can improve skin health, reduce signs of aging and promote a radiant complexion. It is advisable to supplement with an appropriate sun protection routine to protect the skin from further damage.

The balanced composition of essential vitamins and their careful stabilization in microspheres distinguishes the être belle products in the ENERGY skincare range, ensuring the best possible availability, penetration and efficacy.

BENEFITS

- Reduction of oxidative stress and more cell vitality
- Greater resistance to negative environmental influences
- Protection against premature, light- and environmental-induced skin aging
